

PHOTOGRAPHY BY: MARY CARDELLA/LOVE LIFE IMAGES

A Fine Romance

Eleven DC-area couples share the special details of their weddings and receptions.

THE SWEET SMELL OF FLOWERS in a small rural chapel. A look of pure love on a groom's face as his bride-to-be approaches the altar. The surge of bodies onto the dance floor when the band plays a favorite song. If beauty is in the details, weddings provide a multitude of examples. They offer memories to last a lifetime. We have chosen a few special nuptials to inspire your own dazzling day.

Lindsay Schraub & Michael Jasser

MANSION ON O STREET
WASHINGTON, DC
07.19.08

photographs by MARY GARDELLA/LOVE LIFE IMAGES
text by JILL HUDSON NEAL

OCCUPATIONS She's a transit advertising sales rep; he's the executive director of a parking services firm WHERE THEY LIVE Logan Circle NUMBER OF WEDDING ATTENDEES 125 HOW THEY MET As students at the University of Maryland WHERE THEY GOT ENGAGED After dinner at the Inn at Little Washington WEDDING CAKE They passed on the cake in favor of a dessert bar WEDDING THEME A mix of kitschy and whimsical WEDDING FLOWERS White hydrangeas, lilies FAVORITE WEDDING DETAIL The silhouette artist who painted guests' portraits as favors FIRST DANCE SONG "Sea of Love" by Cat Power BIGGEST SURPRISE OF THE WEDDING How much guests enjoyed wandering the Mansion, which has four floors of secret passage-ways, hidden doors and other surprises around every corner FOUR WORDS THAT DESCRIBE THE WEDDING Eclectic, fun, memorable, magical HONEYMOON SPOT Anguilla

THE DETAILS

RECEPTION VENUE: Mansion on O Street
THE BRIDE'S GOWN: Morgane Le Fay
THE GROOM'S TUX: Canali
EVENT DESIGNER: Amy Gutheridge/Engaging Affairs
FLOWERS: Rance Goff/UltraViolet
HAIR: Andre Chreky
MUSIC: St. Charles String Quartet & Dj Will Eastman

“Keep the guest list intimate. It’s a unique opportunity to have everyone you love from all different walks of life in one room.”

